DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Group I, claims 1-12, 25-32, and 35-39, drawn to a first product that is a nucleic acid, a genetically modified plant cell, a plant comprising said cell, propagation material, a vector, a host cell and a first method of identifying a plant.

Group II, claims 13 and 19, drawn to second product wherein the product is a modified or derived starch.

Group III, claims 14-17, drawn to a second method wherein the method is a method for manufacturing starch.

Group IV, claims 21-22, drawn to a third product wherein the product is flour.

Group V, claims 23-24, drawn to a third method wherein the method is a method for manufacturing flour.

Group VI, claims 33-34, drawn to a fourth product wherein the product is a protein.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Most of the above groups are not linked by a technical feature and are independent from one another, but wherein the groups are linked by a technical feature, the technical feature is an phosphoglucan gene or protein, however this feature is not special because it does not constitute an advancement over the prior art. Ritte et al (2002 PNAS 99:7166-7171) disclose an alpha-glucan-water dikinase.

Furthermore, Group I already contains at least a first product and at least a first method, and Applicants therefore must select a Group listed above as their invention for examination purposes.

In addition to the restriction requirement above, Applicants are also required to elect a single sequence representing their selected invention.

The claims are generic to patentably distinct sequences, SEQ ID NOs 1,2,3 and 4.

Applicant must elect a single nucleic acid sequence representing the elected invention (SEQ ID NO: 1 or 3, encoding amino acid sequence either 2 or 4).

Applicants are reminded that nucleotide sequences encoding different proteins are structurally distinct chemical compounds and are unrelated to one another. These sequences are thus deemed to normally constitute independent and distinct inventions within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 121. Absent evidence to the contrary, each such nucleotide sequence is presumed to represent an independent and distinct invention, subject to a restriction requirement pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 121 and 37 CFR 1.141 et seq.

This requirement is not to be construed as a requirement for an election of species, since each nucleotide and amino acid sequence is not a member of single genus of invention, but constitutes an independent and patentably distinct invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Brent Page whose telephone number is (571)-272-5914. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday 8-5.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Anne Marie Grunberg can be reached on (571)-272-0975. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
